Mr. Daan Eksteen, Head: External Radio Services

Radio RSA, the Voice of South Africa, was inaugurated in May 1966 and broadcasts externally from modern studios in Johannesburg in English, French, Portuguese, Swahili, Chichewa, German, Dutch, Afrikaans, Spanish, Lozi and Tsonga for 208 hours a week. Its target areas are Africa, Latin America, Germany, Austria, Switzerland, Holland, Belgium, France, the Middle East, the United Kingdom, the Irish Republic and North America but it is also heard clearly in countries well outside its normal areas, such as the Far East, Scandinavia and Australasia.

Radio RSA's main aim is to foster goodwill and understanding between nations. Its objectives are to broadcast comprehensive, accurate and objective information, to present a positive and correct image of South Africa to listeners abroad and where necessary, to counter and refute false propaganda against South Africa.

Radio RSA, through its broadcasts, hopes to strengthen existing bonds of friendship and to win new friends for South Africa.
